A Monarch's Travel fund is created specifically to domicile net proceeds of fundraisers that were presented solely for this purpose.

- A. The Emperor and Empress are not required as such to travel out-of-town. However, in the interest of the promotion of their coronation and the goodwill of the Imperial Court of San Francisco, as the founding court of the International Court System, the monarchs should plan to attend selected in-state and out-of-state coronations that they can financially afford. If a coronation is within driving distance (Fresno to the south; Redding to the north or Sacramento to the east), mileage at current IRC rate per mile is reimbursable. If travel to Reno, NV is by vehicle, mileage is reimbursable at the stated rate.
 - i. In-state expenses are limited to a maximum of $250 (within 150 miles) per monarch per event.
 - ii. Out-of-state expenses are limited to $350 per monarch per event.
